

Finding Search Terms
Using the Database Thesaurus and Visual Search

Write the first and last names of your group member(s):

Part 1: Using the Thesaurus

Milligan Library webpage → Online Databases → English → Humanities International Complete
When you are in the database, click on the Thesaurus in the dark green bar near the top of the page.

Assignment: In essay 3, the suggested subjects had many abstract terms that are often difficult to search. One of the suggested subjects was: Whether or not art (which includes the arts, the national endowment, and even architecture) is worth the cost

Using the database thesaurus, type: Arts in the Browse for: box

List one broader term:

List two narrower terms:

List two related terms:

From all the terms listed, which two do you think would be most useful for further research on the subject listed above:

Part 2: Visual Search—Click on Visual Search on the blue tabs at the top of the screen. Use the term “arts” again or search on a word of your own choosing. Explore the topic in Visual Search.
