Description of Materials

Accession Number _____

- The donor transfers all right of ownership of these materials to The Helsabeck Archives of the Stone-Campbell Movement (Archives). Items donated may be placed in either The Helsabeck Archives of the Stone-Campbell Movement or The Holloway Archives at Milligan University, as deemed appropriate by the college archivist.
- The Archives agrees to protect and preserve to the extent feasible the physical and/or digital materials.
- The Archives may arrange or rearrange these materials according to accepted archival principles, to make them more accessible to researchers.
- The donor retains the right of access to the materials, even if restricted to the public, during the Archives' normal hours of operation.
- Unless otherwise specified, the materials will be made available to the public for research purposes. Please specify below any restrictions on access, and the time at which such restrictions shall be lifted.

Restrictions:

- The Archives reserves the right to reevaluate and reappraise historical materials in its holdings and to deaccession them when appropriate. Deaccessioned collections and items weeded from collections during processing, due to duplication, irrelevance, limited use, or deterioration, will be offered to the original donor or his/her agent if so requested at the time of donation. If the donor wishes not to reclaim the material or cannot be located with a reasonable search, the Archives reserves the right to offer the material to other depositories or discard the items.

_____ I wish to be contacted in the event of deaccessioning of these materials.

_____ I do not wish to be contacted in the event of deaccessioning of these materials.
