INTRODUCTION

Title: Milligan College Artifacts: Recruitment Table Tablecloth

Collection Number: 06

Physical Description: 1 Box

Creator: Milligan College

ADMINISTRATIVE INFORMATION

Provenance: This artifact was brought to the Milligan College Archives and Special Collections in 2001.

Access: Open for research.

Processing Information: Ginger Dillon finished processing this artifact on May 23, 2005.

HISTORICAL NOTE

In 2001, Milligan College kicked off a new capitol gains campaign and officially adopted a new motto and orange-and-black logo. Previous to this, much of the College's recruitment materials, letterheads, etc. used green and white or green and cream as their color theme.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

This artifact is a tablecloth most likely used to cover tables used by College recruiters at conventions, college fairs, etc. It uses the green-and-white color scheme common before 2001 and states "Milligan College: A Premier Christian Liberal Arts College."
